A. TEE BALL DIVISION - League age four, five, and six (If never played TEE BALL) year olds.

B. MACHINE PITCH DIVISION - (6-7 year olds) - League age six and seven year olds.

Objective: To further instruct the player coming out of Tee-Ball, the fundamentals of the game in a fun, low-key atmosphere. Emphasis in this program should be on the proper technique of throwing, catching, running, hitting and field positions.

C. JUNIOR MINOR LEAGUE DIVISION (MACHINE PITCH/PLAYER PITCH COMBO) - (7-8-9 year olds) - League age 7, 8, and 9 year olds.

Objective: To instruct players in the fundamentals of the game in a fun, low-key atmosphere. Provide an outlet of healthful activity and training under good leadership. D. SENIOR MINOR LEAGUE DIVISION (PLAYER PITCH) – (9-10-11) - League age nine, ten, and eleven (twelve-year-old will be allowed due to safety reasons).

Objective: The Challenger League offers children that are unable to play a “regular” game of baseball an opportunity to play with the help of a “Buddy”.

SECTION 2 - Divisions of Play

A. MAJOR BASEBALL DIVISION

PLAYER TRYOUTS:

- Each player league ages 7 through 12 must complete at least one of the spring tryouts to be eligible for the player draft unless written excuse is presented to and approved by the league Player Agent and President. Any league age 7-year-old not completing a tryout will not be allowed in the Junior Minors Division draft.
- A parent at registration may request their child to be placed in Senior Minors or Junior Minors Division by written request, which is approved by the QCLL President, Vice President, and Player Agent before tryout date.
- Any player not completing a spring tryout will be considered a “blind draft pick” according to the following:

Division	League Age
Majors	12
Senior Minors	10/11
Junior Minors	7/8/9

- Managers and/or their designated representative shall attend tryouts and evaluate the players performance for their own reference. No other individuals will be allowed on the field during tryouts except league officials.
- The QCLL Major division shall be limited to a maximum of 10 teams.
- The QCLL SM/JM divisions will be limited to 10 teams.

PLAYER DRAFT:

- The managers shall draw numbers before the draft begins to determine the order of the player selection process.
- The draft will be a "snake draft" meaning the manager receiving the first pick in round 1, will receive the last pick in round 2. The manager receiving the last pick in round 1 will receive the first pick in round 2. This will continue until all players have been selected.
- For the Junior Minors and Senior Minors Divisions, the returning manager/coach can retain/protect a total of 3 players (Including his own children) from His/Her previous season. (Player Protection form must be signed by player parent) For the Majors Division, the returning manager/coach can retain/protect a total of 4 players (Including his own children) from His/Her previous season. (Player Protection form must be signed by player parent)
- Children of a manager or coach will be placed on the same team as that manager/coach. Manager and coach's children must be their 1st and 2nd round pick. (3rd round if needed)

- A new manager to the division may select an assistant coach and protect that coach's son/daughter prior to tryouts. This is available to assistant coaches as well. If the previous manager is no longer managing in the division, an assistant may assume the team and select a coach per this rule. However, if a parent of a child on the protected list for that team offers (and is going) to be an assistant coach, then the manager would have an assistant coach already and this rule would not apply.
- Unless parents request separate teams for siblings, they will be kept together and drafted to the same team.
- Once the player draft is completed, the managers will have a maximum of 30 minutes to complete any trades. No trades will take place once the managers leave the draft room.
- In the event of contraction of teams, players from the teams contracted will be placed back in the draft pool to be chosen by the other managers.

B. MINOR BASEBALL DIVISIONS

PLAYER DRAFT:

- The Minor League Division will use the same set of draft rules as the Major League Division.

C. MACHINE PITCH AND TEE BALL DIVISION

- Instead of implementing a draft, the Local League Player Agent will divide the players into a specified number of teams based on the number of registered players.

ARTICLE V - ALL-STAR SELECTION PROCESS

The Local League President or His/Her designee will serve ex-officio as the director of the All-Star Selection Committee. Prior to the end of the regular season, the Local League Player Agent shall preside over the All-Star Selection Committee process consisting of all managers and coaches in the Major/Minor League Divisions. All voting and feedback from the managers and coaches must be managed through the Player Agent. At no time may any players or other children be aware of or part of any discussions about the selection process.
